

Love In The Making

Life, heaven's own miracle
Being, bourne, what's it for

Could it be it's Love In The Making
Could it be it's true
Could it be it's love for the taking
All for me and you

You can live in sorrow when there is love right by your side
Building new tomorrows, when love is gone,
Never seems easy but somehow you
Find the dawn and carry on

Give it all for Love In The Making
Give it all you can
Give it all there's love for the taking
Do you understand

Living life can fool you [you fool]
What are you living for
Live your life, you fool, you [you fool]
Why are you waiting
Please tell me what you are waiting for [live!]

Could it be it's Love In The Making
Could it be love

You can live in sorrow
When there is love right by your side
Building new tomorrows, when love is gone,
Never seems easy but somehow you
Find the dawn and carry on

Could it be the love of a lifetime
Could it be it's true
Could it be a love everlasting
All for me and you
Could it be a life in the making
Could it be love
Could it be a life in the making
Could it be love
Could it be a life in the making
Could it be love
Could it be a life in the making
Could it be love
Could it be a life in the making
Could it be love
