

Up to Now

I've lived my life
Feeling like I don't belong
I've lived my life
Feeling like I'm always wrong
And not so strong
Without a song
Up To Now

I see the bread upon the water
I hear the heartbeat of the land
Aetheric Mother Nature's daughter
Afraid to fly
Up to Now

I just can't wait a minute longer
A starving multitude's at hand
I feel the spirit growing stronger
The soul denied
Up to Now

Instrumental

A hundred thousand generations
Matured the time to take a stand
Mind's existential abnegation
Unrealized
Up to Now

An earthly~cosmic culmination
A universe at my command
Beyond my wildest expectations
Identified
Up to Now

Right now... repeat/fade
